VOLUME XXV.

PARIS, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, JULY 4, 1905.

NUMBER 53.

Prosperous Banks.

Paris can boast of six of the most prosperous banking houses in Central Kentucky. We give below the deposits of each in round numbers.

Deposit, $285,000; declared 3 per cent. dividend, and $1,000 to surplus. Agricultural, $204,000; dividend 5 per cent.

Bourbon, $209,000; dividend 4 per cent. and $800 to undivided profits.

First National, $191,000. This bank was three years old July 1 and passed 5 per cent. to the surplus and tax account.

Citizens, $110,000; passed 4 per cent. dividend to surplus and tax fund.

Geo. Alexander & Co., $249,000. This is a private banking house.

Each one made substantial gains, which was disposed of by adding to tax and surplus fund.

Wheat Sacks.

Plenty of wheat sacks. Will pay highest price for wheat. You can unload your wagons with ease and quickness at our elevator. Call 84, either 'phone, for prices.

4-1f R. B. HUTCHCRAFT.

A Model Office.

County Clerk Ed. D. Paton has just finished re-numbering and re-boxing the papers of his office. You can now find any paper you desire without the least trouble. The papers are now in the finest steel boxes instead of the old style paper boxes. We venture the assertion that the Bourbon County Clerk's office is kept in better shape than in any county in Kentucky. How, though, could it be otherwise when it is in charge of two such model clerks—Ed. D. Paton and Pearce Paton, his deputy.

Osteopathy.

Sam Rule Found Dead.

Sam Rule, aged about 35 years, was found dead on the work bench in C. L. Hukill's tailor shop, in the Ficklin building, early yesterday morning when Mr. Hukill went to the shop to go to work. The Coroner's verdict was that his death was caused from alcoholism.

He was a single man and had for many years been employed by Mr. Hukill, making the shop his bedroom. He was seen on the street several times Sunday and by several late in the evening after supper.

Circuit Court Adjourned.

The Grand Jury which was reconvened by the request of the Fiscal Court made their report Friday evening and was dismissed. The report will be found in another column.

On Saturday, Judge Stout sentenced the following to the penitentiary:

Chas. Parker, colored, for shooting and wounding, one year.

Harry Higgins, white, grand larceny, one year.

Chas. Lee, colored, shooting and wounding, three years.

Geo. Sparks, colored, seduction, two years.

After passing on a number of motions in equity cases, court was adjourned until November term.

Paris, Ky., Tuesday, July 4, 1905.

TALK about the desecration of the Sabbath, we had it here in Paris, Sunday, so flagrant that it almost made Christians out of the vilest of old sinners. There was held at the Fair Grounds what was called a Camp Meeting, and from three o'clock Sunday afternoon until after twelve Sunday night it was actually dangerous to cross the street from Eighth street to the Fair Grounds. Drunken negro men and women were between the hours mentioned racing to and from the grounds, sometimes three and four abreast, going as fast as the poor horses could go.
We are informed by residents on South Main that it was the most disgraceful exhibition of desecration of the Sabbath ever witnessed in Paris or any other town.

Such scenes as this is what brings the respectable colored people in bad repute. We do not mean that it was our best colored citizens that was engaged in this debauchery of the Sabbath, but that it was the drunken negro toughs, both male and female, that infest our city. If the police force is not large enough to cope with such outrages in the outskirts, then the Mayor and Board of Council should increase the number of policemen—anyway we have about two less policemen than any other town the size of Paris in Kentucky. We can not see why the city officials will allow camp meetings of this caliber to be held in the city limits, for it is anything but a religious gathering.

To-day is the Glorious Fourth of July—the anniversary of America's independence. Let us not commemorate it as the day of our deliverance from the British yoke, but rather as a day for patriots to make new and sacred pledges to defend their country from the encroachments of new enemies from whatever source, at home or abroad.

F. & C. Change of Time

Kentucky Pensioners.

The annual report of Major A. T.
Wood, of Louisville, Pension Agent for Kentucky, will show that twenty-five widows still receive pensions for the War of 1812. There are no survivors of the war, and the widows still receive each $3.00 per month.

For the Indian Wars three survivors and twenty widows receive pensions.
There are 216 survivors of the Mexican War in Kentucky who receive pensions, and 417 widows.

The Civil War has the largest list to its credit, there being 5,669 survivors and 2,646 widows who receive pensions.

For service in the Spanish-American War 635 survivors receive pensions, and 211 widows. About $1,000-000 is distributed annually through the Louisville office in pensions.

Some Points of Interest.

Among the many important points of interest that we will write up and illustrate in our history of Paris and Bourbon county, which is to be issued as a supplement to this paper the latter part of this month, are as follows: The county court houses of Bourbon county, of which the present is the fourth, something concerning the many notable trials that have taken place in the different ones, a view of the grass seed strippers at work, a view of the hemp fields, tobacco growing, fine stock, a sketch of Wm. Garth illustrated with a large portrait, our water-works, gas and electric systems, police and fire departments, city and county officials, interior views of the court house,
public school building, library, eighteen of the pretty homes, the churches,
all of the prominent business houses,
some of our business and professional men, our educational advantages with pictures of the faculties and buildings, large designs of officers of the various secret orders, the Elk's building, some of the stock farms, etc. Each article will be highly illustrated. Besides the above articles we will have a full and complete history of the town and county, past present and future.

If you are not a subscriber of the News, subscribe now in order to get one. There will be two thousand extra copies to be sold to non-subscribers.
Every citizen of this county should send out two or three of these beautiful books to their friends or relatives out of the county. Help to advertise Paris and Bourbon county. We are going to give away five thousand of these books free in this and adjoining counties. Extra copies will be sold at twenty-five cents each. Send in

BROWER'S

More Care and Attention

Is being given at the present time to the decorating and furnishing of the interior of the home in a comfortable but artistic manner than at any other period in the history of our country.

This fact is attested by the numerous magazine articles and by magazines themselves devoted exclusively to this purpose that have lately appeared.

Our aim has been to keep our stock of furniture, floor coverings, etc., up to the minute, and at the same time to study how best to show you the existing styles.

With this end in view we have furnished three rooms representing three historical periods, the Italian Renaissance, Empire and American Colonial.

We believe that these rooms will be of interest to you and cordially invite you to inspect them at your convenience.

THE FAIR.

Sentenced to Hang.

James Garfield Smith, for the second time under sentence of death for the murder of William Moore, at George Luigart's saloon, South Limestone street, Lexington, was Friday taken before Circuit Judge Parker, who named September 1 as the date for Smith execution.

Smith was perfectly composed when he faced Judge Parker. In reply to the question whether he had anything to say why sentence of death should not be passed upon him, Smith simply shook his head. Judge Parker then recited the usual formula assigning the hanging for September 1.

A Grim Tragedy

Is daily enacted in thousands of homes, as Death claims in each one, another victim of consumption or pneumonia. But when cough and colds are properly treated the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntly, of Oakland, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which cured her, and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c and $1.00 by Oberdorfer, the druggist. Trial bottle free.

McCarthy & Board offer you safe insurance against Fire, Wind, Lightning, Accident, Loss of Health and Burglary; Plate Glass Breakage a specialty. Fidelity bonds written for persons holding positions of trust, official or otherwise. Office at Deposit Bank.

DEATHS.

The remains of Mr. D. S. Lemon, who died at St. Joseph Hospital from injuries received in L. & N. yards, Friday morning, were taken to Walton, Ky., yesterday morning, where funeral services will be held at the Baptist Church, conducted by Rev. Sam Adams.

Frances Fithian, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Woods, died yesterday morning at the home of the parents on Henderson street. The body will be taken from the residence at o'clock to-day for burial at the Catholic cemetery. Pall-bearers: Katherine Rassenfoss, Katherine Carey, Lizzette Parker and Johanna Gorey.

MARRIAGES.

Mr. Ben McMahan, of Clarke county, and Miss Jessie Brown, of Clay City, were married by Judge H. C. Smith yesterday in his office.

Went to Sleep on Track.

Leslie Williams, aged about 35 years, of Cynthiana, came to Paris Sunday and while here imbibed too freely in intoxicants. He boarded the afternoon train for home, but became unruly and refused to pay his fare and was put off the train at Kiser-ton. It is said that after being put off he flashed some money and wanted to get back on saying he would pay his fare, but the train pulled off and left him.

He started to walk home and it is supposed sat down on the track to rest and fell asleep. The Natural Bridge excursion train is thought to be the train that struck him as it was the first one to pass after he left Kiser-ton, which was about 8 o'clock.

He was found near the track yesterday morning by Kiser Smith in a helpless condition, his skull being crushed and several deep and ugly cuts in his back. It was also thought his back was broken. He was practically conscious but could not tell how it happened. A negro man saw him sitting on the end of a tie about dark. He was taken to his home at Cynthiana by yesterday morning's passenger train. He is a brother of Mrs. Noah Kendall, of this county.

LION BEER.—Everybody who drinks beer should always insist on having the famous Lion Beer.

T. F. BRANNON, Agent.

Both Feet Cut Off.

On the Natural Bridge Excursion, Sunday, from Cincinnati, a man by the name of Tom Sharp, of Newport, got off the train when it stopped at Robinson station and in attempting to jump on after it had started fell beneath the wheels and had both of his feet cut off. The train backed up and carried the unfortunate man to Cynthiana.

Sharp had been drinking from the time he boarded the train at Covington and insisted on jumping off and on at every stop. The conductor of the train warned him time and again, and he finally told the conductor to "Go to h—l, I railroaded before you was born." The accident, like many that occur on the railroad, was due solely to the man not listening to the warning of the railroad officials. Simply a case of a smart "aleck" full of whisky. He was taken to his home on the afternoon train Sunday.

Sickening Shivering Fits

Of ague and malaria, can be relieved and cured by Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine; of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to quinine, having none of this drug's bad after-effects. E. S. Munday, of Henrietta, Tex., writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life." Re-convening of Grand Jury.

On Thursday morning, Judge R. L. Stout re-convened the Grand Jury, as stated in the last issue and called their attention to the resolutions passed by the Fiscal Court, and instructed them to thoroughly investigate every demand therein. After two days' session the jury on Friday afternoon made the following report:

May it please Your Honor:
On June 29, 1905, Your Honor charged the undersigned, as a Grand Jury, and called our attention to the following resolutions:

[Here follows the resolutions passed by the Fiscal Court, and which were published in full in Friday's issue of THE NEWS:]

Acting upon the suggestions made in the above resolutions, we have listened at length to the County Judge, a number of the Magistrates of the County, and others, and after a thorough review of the facts leading up to the report made by eleven of the undersigned, as members of the first grand jury impaneled by your Honor at this term of court, we are confirmed in our opinion that the first report referred to was correct; that same was well considered and thoroughly understood by each member of the grand jury making same; that said report is not an exaggeration, but that same was justified by the facts presented in evidence before the grand jury making it.

We desire to say again, as was said in the original report, that we do not believe any of the derelictions herein indicated were dishonestly done.

The original was not the offspring of envy, malice, or spite, on the part of any one (as some of the County officers evidently believe), but was the honest expression of the twelve grand jurors signing it, uninfluenced by anything other than an earnest desire to do each his duty.

We beg now to be finally discharged.
(Signed) S. L. WEATHERS, Foreman.

STOCK AND CROP.

—J. Gano Johnson, of Mt. Sterling, sold to J. C. Patrick, of Stanton, the brood mare Starletta, for $400.

—Gus Macey, of Lexington, has sold the trotting gelding, Country Jay, 2:10½, to Isaac Eckert, of Philadelphia, for $11,500.

—Gentry & Thompson, of Lexington, purchased of S. H. Payne, of Scott county, a pair of six-year-old mare mules for $400.

—Wm. McKee, of Harrison, bought a mule colt in Cythiana for $95. Good mules seem to be selling high.

—W. R. Dillon, of London, sold to W. M. Jones, of North Middletown, 235 ewes and lambs, averaging 80 pounds, at $3.75.

—Chas. Webber, of Glen Kenney, sold his crop of tobacco, about 25,000 pounds to the Continental at 10 cents per pound.

—R. B. Hutchcraft sold to Jonas Weil, 297 sloop fed cattle, which have been at Payne's distillery at Maysville, at $4.60.

—Dan Peed has sold his tobacco purchase, about 356,000 pounds, to Louisville parties—one barn of 126,000 pounds at 12 cents, another 260,000 pounds at 15½ cents.

—Chas. S. Brent & Bro. bought of George and Charlie Pugh, of Harrison county, 20,000 pounds of hemp at 5 cents. They also made the following purchases of blue grass seed: Of the Kentucky Supply Company, Danville, 4,000 bushels; Duncan Bros., 7,000 bushels; Jno Woodford 1,000 bushels, Silas and Ben Bedford, 1,500 bushels, paying 75 cents per bushel.

—The Interior Journal says there are many ways of making a living besides working in the corn field. A man in Manitoba has a skunk farm. Last year, which was the first, he raised 400 and realized $1 apiece for their skins. This year he calculates on killing 1,000. They cost very little to raise, and it is said you get used to the smell after a while. Most men would, however, die before getting used to it.

NO ARGUMENT, the Walk-Over Shoe is the best.

Between-Seasons Sale Opens Wednesday, July 5th.

One of the events of interest to milady for the present week is the opening of Embry & Co.'s Between-Seasons Sales of Ladies' Hats and Tailored Garments.

This enterprising young firm has established the invariable rule never to carry from one season stock designed for a previous season, and as a means to this end is putting on sale all its offerings of Pattern and Trimmed Hats and Novelties, Linen Suits and Coats, Shirt Waist Suits and Waists, Silk Traveling Coats, Silk Shirt Waist Suits and Silk Coat Suits, Walking Skirts and Fancy Dresses, Hand-Embroidered Linen and Jap Silk Waists, Separate Linen Coats and the numerous accessories to women's wardrobes.

This sale, coming thus early, will give the public the benefit of their offerings at reduced prices at a time when they may be of service to those contemplating summer trips, outings and tours.

They have established the enviable reputation of giving absolutely the goods they advertise at the prices they announce, and it is this fact, combined with the recognized excellence of quality and exclusiveness of design of everything handled by this house, that has made Embry & Co.'s periodical mid-summer sales so abundantly popular.

The sale opens Wednesday morning, July 5th, and will continue until the elaborate stock is sold. This step is being taken at this time in order to make ready for the reception of the fall offerings, some of which are now in process of design.
